

Media Access at Lovelock Correctional Center

All media organizations that sent credentials will be given access to the designated media areas at the Correctional Center. No badges will be issued for this area, however all members of the press should wear their organizational press badges while on site.

The following personnel have been granted access to the physical hearing room in Lovelock Correctional Center:

Ken Ritter, Associated Press – Pool Reporter
Wade Barnett, Video Camera Operator
Sholeh Moll-Masumi, Photographer

The following news organizations have been approved for on-site attendance based on having submitted credentials in advance. If you submitted credentials and your organization is not on this list, please contact dmsmith@parole.nv.gov ASAP for verification.
