AGENDA

9:00 AM	I	Call to Order and Roll Call
	II	Public Comment. No action may be taken upon a matter raised during a period devoted to comments by the general public until the matter itself has been specifically included on an agenda as an item upon which action may be taken pursuant to subparagraph (2) of NRS 241.020.
	III	For possible action: Review/Approval of minutes from the March 7, 2017 and June 19, 2017 Board meetings.
	IV	For possible action: Comprehensive Review of Parole Standards (NRS 213.10885). A. Presentation by the JFA Institute on the revalidation of the Nevada Parole Risk Assessment. The Board must make a determination of whether the standards are effective in predicting the probability that a convicted person will live and remain at liberty without violating the law if parole is granted or continued. If a standard is found to be ineffective, the Board shall not use that standard in its decisions regarding parole [NRS 213.10885(6)]. B. Presentation and discussion on risk assessments used to predict violence-related criminal recidivism and the potential for including violence-related predictive elements or assessments into the parole standards. C. Review of the current evidence-based programs administered by the Department of Corrections (NDOC). The Board may take action to: make changes to the parole guideline and risk assessment and the elements contained within; make a determination regarding the effectiveness of the current risk assessment and guideline and discontinue the use of an element on the parole guideline and risk assessment if it is found to be ineffective; determine which NDOC programs may be awarded credit for on the Nevada Parole Risk Assessment; and/or set topics of future Board meetings relative to the presentation and discussion.

	V	For possible action: Presentation by the Division of Parole and Probation (the Division) on the Division’s supervision policies related to the placement of parolees into independent reporting centers; the use of residential confinement as a sanction for parole violations; any written guidelines related to responses to technical violations aimed at avoiding the return to prison when alternative responses are available; and, any other efforts related to policy changes which pertain to the supervision of parolees. The Board may act to set topics of future Board meetings relative to the presentation and discussion.
	VI	Public Comment. No action may be taken upon a matter raised during a period devoted to comments by the general public until the matter itself has been specifically included on an agenda as an item upon which action may be taken pursuant to subparagraph (2) of NRS 241.020.
	VII	For possible action: The Board may act to adjourn the meeting.

A period shall be devoted to public comment. The Board may limit such comment to three minutes per person. At the discretion of the Chairperson, agenda items may be combined for consideration, or taken in a different order. The Board may remove an item from the agenda or delay discussion relating to an item on the agenda at any time.
