

PRE-RELEASE RESCISSION/REVIEW PREVIOUS ORDER (RPO - NAC 213.545):

~~1. If, up to three working days prior to the scheduled parole release date of an inmate, the Department or the Division becomes aware of information which provides grounds to rescind the grant of parole, to include violations of Nevada Department of Corrections Administrative Regulation 707 (AR 707 Inmate Disciplinary Process), they may delay release of the inmate for up to three working days after the scheduled release date.~~

1. The Board may rescind the parole of an inmate after granting parole before the inmate is released from prison. If an inmate is scheduled to be released on parole in less than three working days after the Department or the Division becomes aware of information providing grounds to rescind the parole of the inmate, to include violations of Nevada Department of Corrections Administrative Regulation 707 (AR 707 Inmate Disciplinary Process), the Department or Division may:

- a) Delay the release of the inmate on parole for not more than three working days after the inmate's scheduled release date;
- b) Provide any Board member written notification of the grounds to rescind parole and inform the Board that the inmate's release has been delayed;
- c) Request a member of the Board order the further delay of the inmate's release.

2. If a member of the Board becomes aware of information providing grounds to rescind the parole by way of written notification as detailed above, the member of the Board may order the delay of the release of the inmate to allow time for the Board to consider rescinding the parole.

3. If the member of the Board, after receiving written notification, does not order the delay of release of the inmate on parole within three days after the scheduled release date, the prisoner must be released.

4. If a member of the Board orders the delay of release of an inmate on parole, the Board will, as soon as practicable:

- a) Authorize the release of the inmate, if a majority of the members of the Board state in writing that the parole should not be rescinded; or
- b) Schedule a meeting to consider whether to rescind the parole of the inmate.

~~2. If the information will result in detaining the inmate beyond the release date specified on the parole order, the Department or the Division must notify the Board of this information in writing.~~

~~3. Upon receipt of information which may be grounds for rescission of the previously granted parole, a member of the Board may order a delay in the release of the inmate to allow time for the Board to consider rescission. This order must be made within three days after the inmate was scheduled to be released, otherwise the inmate must be released.~~

~~4. If a member of the Board orders the delay of an inmate's release, as soon as practicable:~~

- ~~a. a hearing will be scheduled, or~~

~~b. if a majority of the Board states in writing that the parole should not be rescinded, the inmate shall be released as previously ordered.~~

5. An inmate who has received a grant of parole and has not been scheduled for release or has not reached their eligibility date is subject to a reconsideration hearing if the Board becomes aware of information which provides grounds to rescind the parole. This may include, but is not limited to, major violations of the inmate disciplinary procedure, changes in sentence structure, inmate escapes, or if a documented victim statement was not received.
